Foreword (SPOILERS AHEAD)

Hello! My name is Dingus and this is a guide for when / how to access all events for the game. Obviously, goes without saying, but this entire guide is an unmarked spoiler for how the game's logic when it comes to event choices operates.

I recommend having at least a single completion of this game under your belt before proceeding, or if you're interested in finding things out for yourself... turning around and heading in the other direction.

Both are fine with me. It's your free will. Use it how you like it.

How the Calendar Actually Works

your various stats.

The game begins on the 13th of April 2024 and will run until the 19th of March 2028, where you are required to make a confession to one of the girls or forever be maidenless

You are only permitted to make choices on what stats to level and what girls to ask out on dates on both Saturdays and Sundays.

Making a decision to raise a stat on a Saturday will generally provide the largest boost for a stat, so it is without a doubt the best day for that purpose. Sundays are the best for sleeping and to restore health to avoid collapsing from exhaustion, which will eat into your available days for choices with the characters

Unskippable Events

Throughout your time on Jotunn, you will be boxed into events against your will. You are unable to avoid playing through these. These are hard coded to happen on specific dates during your time on the island.

Thankfully, they will all provide some sort of stat / girl affinity bonus depending on the options you pick when given a choice... so they will always provide some form of value to you. Or not, depending on what route you're after.

The unskippable are as follows :

School Events

You're here on Jotunn for a reason... and that's to go to college. So, it's time to answer some questions.

Generally, each of these events plays out the same. The teacher talks for a while, you listen, you answer a question at the end. Simple.

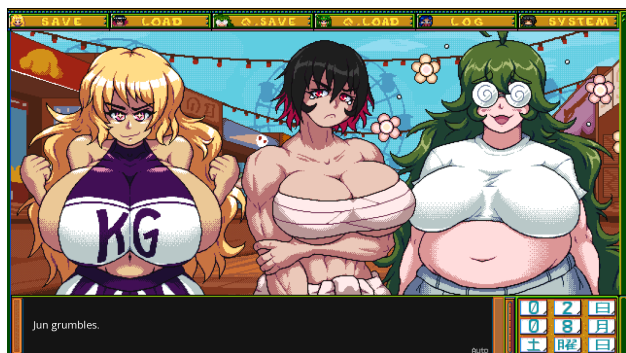

I recommend making a quick save at each choice and savescumming if you don't need the stat for your chosen route(s)

With the boring stuff out of the way, it's time to say hello to the group. This is a piece of what you're here for, and this is mostly just a variety of hijinks with all of the five main girls.

There's a variety of affinity and stat pickups in each. Only a few are especially noteworthy, and will be pointed out later in the guide.

Like before, I recommend making a quicksave at each choice, and seeing how each plays out to know if they're beneficial to

Character Affinity

I have bad news, the game does not tell you what Affinity a character is at by default. You will need to keep track of this yourself, by hand.

The good news is that the Affinity system is fairly simple to track.

Whenever you see the text popup "I feel a lot closer to [insert character here] now!" or any of it's variants, your affinity with said character has generally risen by a single point.

Additionally, when you do not have enough affinity to proceed to the next event for a character, you will be placed into an activity with them that will raise their affinity by a single point.

Affinity boosts for a character can also come from main events, classroom events, and choices from another character's event. These will also typically raise your affinity by a single point, however there is the occasional

Confessions

The final check for this is weird. The game's last event is actually a little later, but the real final check of the game is at the end of the final Christmas party just before when Confessions is scheduled to happen.

That said, it's confession time, baby.

Congratulations! It's time to claim your run winner.

That is, if you've seen the final event for any of the characters (excluding Jun). You... did see the final event for any of the characters, right?

If not, then...

BAD ENDING

Looks like you're spending this last Christmas alone, buddy.

You get nothing. You get nobody. You lose. Go back home a failure and reload a save.

But, thankfully, you were reading this guide.

One of the characters will be waiting for you under the Mugen tree. But how exactly does the game calculate which one?

The game first does a check of which of the four viable final event flags have been tripped.

In order of operation the game checks for Hifumi, then Fuko, then Yuyu, and ending at Maya.

Then, it will check to see if their Affinity points are greater than or equal to any of the other girls.

If that's true, then that's who will be waiting for you.

So... make sure the character you want to end the game with has the highest affinity, and you have seen their final event. Simple!

Secret Endings

These endings I'm placing in here I'm doing so because they are especially difficult to get to.

These will require managing relationships with multiple characters, have an exceptionally large stat block, and generally will require a lot of trial and error.

A few of these also have variables gated to specific points in Main Events or Character Events!

Hifumi/Jun Ending

Hey, check it out. It's these two again. Don't know if you were paying attention, but these two are pretty obviously gay for each other. Even without your meddling, there were some feelings there this entire time.

So, let's join up in this little towering twosome... shall we?

To unlock this ending you must have the following:

- You must have 380 Points of Courage
- You must have 200 Points of Intelligence
- You must have 200 Points of Empathy
- You must have 120 points of Charisma
- Jun's True Demon Ending stat must be greater than 2
- You must have 2 points to the Hifumi/Jun ending

Wow! That's a lot. You need to make not only the correct choices in Jun's route, but also manage a secret stat, also.

Thankfully, I've already written down where to get at least one of the two points you need for this. Check Event #5 in Hifumi's section for how to get this single point. It's best to do this while you are playing through Hifumi's route to save you some trouble, as you need all of the stats you can and the other choice provides an unneeded boost.

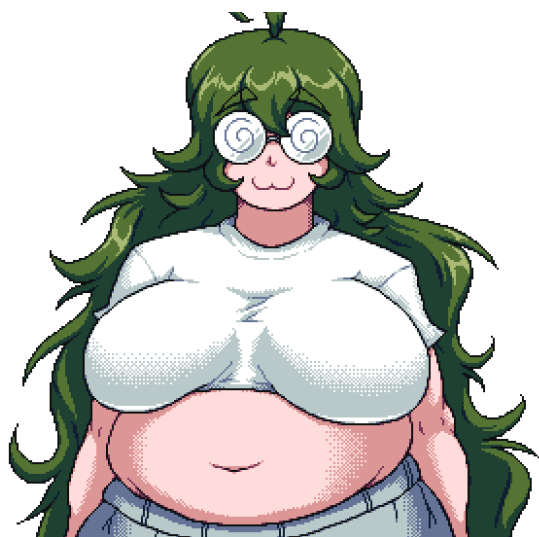

There are two other locations where this point can be earned:

First up, is during Giantcon Pt. 1. If your Charisma is at least 40 when this event starts, you will get this point automatically. You'll also get a free CG. Fantastic!

Your second chance for the point will be during the first Christmas Party. If you pick the center stick during King's game, you will get the point. You also get another CG with this one. Wonderful!

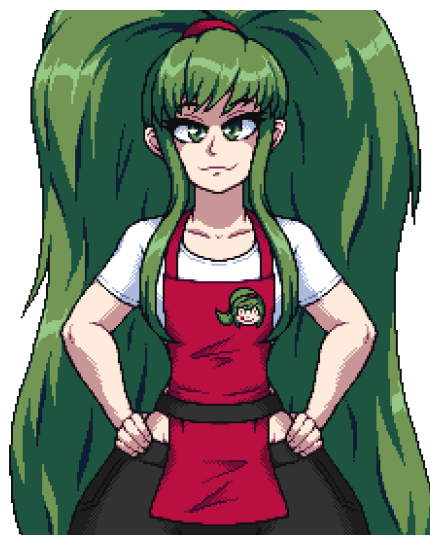

If everything in this list is completed, then upon starting Jun's final event you will be automatically boxed into this ending.

Yugiri Sibling Ending

It's these two. These two also have their own ending. Here are the requirements for it:

- Fuko's Level 10 event must have been seen
- Yuyu's Final Event must have been seen.

- Maya's Level 3 Event must have been seen (This is needed to complete Yuyu's route)
- 300 Charisma
- 300 Intelligence

Seriously. This is really bad.

The good news is that you are automatically boxed into this ending when it's time for Confessions if everything involving these two has been completed.

There are also no secret stats that you must deal with, unlike the other two endings in this list.

Harem Ending

And now for the moment you've all been waiting for.

All of the above.

Hate having to profess your love to a single person? Then, pick them all. Polygamy is for you! Have no strong feelings one way or the other about who is best girl.

This is the perfect ending for the radical centrist... or the masochist.

Here are the stats you need to tap into your Swiss heritage and achieve true neutrality:

- Affinity with all characters (including Jun) must be at least 23.
- 300 Courage
- 300 Charisma
- 200 Intelligence (Needed to access Hifumi's 7th event)
- 200 Empathy (Needed for Maya 7)
- 1 point to the Harem ending

So. This is also pretty bad.

This will require a lot of management with the various characters, the various stats to complete Events as needed to ratchet up Affinity wherever possible... and so on and so forth.

With 23 Affinity, this will put you at the following events for all characters:

- Hifumi - Event 5
- Jun - Event 7
- Yuyu - Event 7
- Fuko - Event 8
- Maya - Event 7

Plan your stats accordingly for when you go down this route!

You can also... just cheat. Did you know your stats are easily modified by putting your save file (Which can be found under %appdata%/Renpy) into SaveEditOnline or through Cheat Engine? Cheating was always an option for

There is only one spot in the game where you can get the point that unlocks the Harem ending... and that's Hifumi's 7th event. You will need 120 points of Charisma. If you miss it by either not having the stats come Hifumi's 7th event or you run out of time... kiss this ending goodbye.

Fuko has a line in the first Christmas party that looks like it iterates the variable for the harem ending... but in truth it doesn't actually do that. It only adds to the Hifumi/Jun ending, as previously written.

Where the choice is has already been written down in this guide!

Once all the criteria has been met, your harem will be waiting for you under the tree come time for Confessions.
